Our Deepest Needs

The word of God serves up a tremendous feast for us today. Isaiah beckons all who hunger and thirst to come to the Lord for satisfaction. The psalmist cries out, “The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs” (Psalms 145:16). Saint Paul tells us that nothing can separate us from the love of God.

Finally, in the Gospel, we hear the story of the miraculous feeding of over five thousand people from a mere five loaves and two fish. Most of us have our material needs met on a day-to-day basis.

These scriptures, nevertheless, have much to say to the contemporary believer. We must ask ourselves, “Where are my deepest hungers? Where are my thirsts?” After material needs are satisfied and, in some cases, over-satisfied, many people still experience a deep longing for spiritual balance and well-being.

As the loaves and fish are multiplied in today’s Gospel, perhaps our prayer can be a longing for the satisfaction of the deepest needs that only God can fill.

NUESTRAS NECESIDADES MÁS PROFUNDAS

La Palabra de Dios nos brinda hoy una tremenda fiesta. Isaías llama a todos los que tienen hambre y sed para que vengan a satisfacerse en el Señor. El salmista proclama: “Abres tú la mano, y sacias de favores a todo viviente” (Salmo 145:16). San Pablo nos dice que nada puede separarnos del amor de Dios. Finalmente, en el Evangelio, escuchamos sobre el milagro de la multiplicación de los cinco panes y dos pescados con que se alimentaron a más de cinco mil personas. Nuestras necesidades diarias suelen estar cubiertas. Sin embargo, estas lecturas tienen mucho que decir al creyente contemporáneo. Debemos preguntarnos: “¿Dónde está mi hambre más profunda? ¿De qué estoy sediento?”.

Una vez satisfechas las necesidades materiales y, en algunos casos, más que satisfechas, mucha gente sigue ansiando tener equilibrio y bienestar espiritual. Al multiplicarse los panes y pescados en el Evangelio de hoy, tal vez nuestra oración es anhelar que nuestras necesidades más hondas sean satisfechas por el único que puede hacerlo: Dios.

FIESTA DE LA FE

Presencia real por excelencia

Una vez que los dones han sido consagrados por la acción del Espíritu Santo y que el sacerdote ha concluido la narración recordando las acciones y palabras de Cristo, el pan y el vino han dejado de ser pan y vino y se han convertido en el Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo. ¿Qué pasó? No fue una transformación, porque no hubo cambio de forma; no fue una transfiguración, porque no hubo cambio de figura; fue una transustanciación porque hubo un cambio de sustancia, manteniendo así la misma forma y la misma figura. Esta presencia de Cristo, total y real, bajo las acciones de pan y de vino es la presencia real por excelencia y constituye la enseñanza principal de la Iglesia en torno a la presencia de Cristo. Así nos lo recuerda el Concilio de Trento: Por la consagración del pan y del vino se realiza la conversión de toda la sustancia del pan en la sustancia del Cuerpo de Cristo, Señor nuestro, y de toda la sustancia del vino en la sustancia de su sangre”. Se le llama presencia real, “no por exclusión. . . sino por antonomasia. . . porque por ella ciertamente se hace presente Cristo, Dios y hombre, entero e íntegro” (Ecclesia de Eucharistia, 15).
